Nominate an Outstanding Benefits Professional Today:
Now Accepting Nominations for the Excellence in Benefits Award

(Jan. 4, 2016) – Employers Health, a professional benefits organization, is currently accepting nominations for the Excellence in Benefits Award. The award seeks to recognize an individual annually who has made meaningful impact in the field and/or delivery of employee benefits. Nominations for the award will be accepted now through January 31, 2017.

Anyone is eligible to submit a nomination but, only individuals from Employers Health member companies are eligible to be nominated. Nominations must include the nominee's impact in the field of employee benefits, specific outcomes achieved such as cost savings or process improvement and the nominee's contributions to industry and civic organizations.

The evaluation process will consist of a review by an independent evaluation panel of human resources and benefits industry professionals. All submissions will be scored and reviewed. The panel will rank nominations based on the nominee's contribution to the delivery of benefits. The winner will be announced at the Employers Health Symposium in May 2017.

For complete award details and to submit your nominations, please go to benefitsaward.com. All nominations must be received by 11:59 p.m. EST, January 31, 2017.
