Lori is the internal events coordinator at Employers Health, working closely with executive leadership, the marketing team and the executive chef to execute internal events and meetings. In this role, she coordinates use of the Canton facilities, maximizing their value for Employers Health associates, clients and the community. In addition to overseeing the planning and execution of events, Lori coordinates with vendors and manages guest travel arrangements.

Prior to joining Employers Health, Lori worked as a wedding and event coordinator at Fieldcrest Estate and as the front desk manager and corporate event coordinator at Glenmoor Country Club. At Glenmoor, she supervised a team of five receptionists and oversaw dining and member event reservations for three restaurants. Lori also handled multiple administrative tasks, employee hiring and training and more.
