CLIENT SOLUTIONS EXECUTIVE

msimmons@employershealthco.com | 614-763-0840

Madison is a client solutions executive in the Employers Health Columbus office. In this role, she works with benefits professionals to assist them in achieving collaborative and productive relationships with their PBM and other employee benefits providers.

Madison holds a bachelor's in public health from Miami University. During her time there, she fortified her resume with various communications internships, leadership positions in student organizations and volunteer work. To gain a well-rounded perspective on the realm of health, benefits and business, Madison continued her higher education and obtained her MBA with a concentration in human resources management from Mount Vernon Nazarene University. When she isn't working with employers on their benefit plans, Madison enjoys spending time with her shih tzu mix, Sebastian.
