Gia is a sales operations specialist at Employers Health. In this role, her responsibilities include maximizing operational infrastructure, including the organization's customer relationship management platform. In addition, she also assists in reporting, forecasting and budgeting for the team.

Before joining Employers Health full-time, Gia worked with Employers Health's marketing team as an intern, assisting in quality assurance, maintaining marketing lists and helping execute events. Gia graduated magna cum laude from Kent State University with a bachelor's degree in applied communication and a minor in public relations. In her free time, she enjoys attending country concerts, line dancing and spending time with friends and family.
