Andy is a data analytics specialist at Employers Health. He supports both the Employers Health team and clients through data analysis and strategic planning related to medical and pharmacy benefit plans. His expertise aids in improving outcomes for pharmacy clients through insightful, data-driven recommendations.

Andy graduated from The Ohio State University with a Bachelor of Science in business administration. Prior to joining Employers Health, he gained professional experience through multiple Columbus, Ohio-based internships, including one at a leading health care navigation company. In his free time, Andy enjoys hiking, playing golf and exploring record stores.
