CLIENT SOLUTIONS OPERATIONS SPECIALIST

shenry@employershealthco.com | 234-401-9857

Style is a member of the client solutions team supporting self-insured employers throughout the United States. As the client solutions operations specialist, she collaborates across departments to execute client management strategy. She also assists with reporting, forecasting and budgeting for the team.

Before joining Employers Health full-time, she worked with Employers Health's client solutions team as an intern, helping to produce and review annual pharmacy benefit reviews. Style received her undergraduate degree from Walsh University. After receiving her undergraduate degree, Style remained at Walsh where she continued running track and worked as a graduate assistant while completing her Master of Business Administration. When she is not at work, she enjoys traveling, cherishing moments with family and friends and exploring all the new experiences life has to offer.
