bevans@employershealthco.com | 330-639-4527

As a client solutions specialist, Bob works with self-insured employers nationwide. In this role, he provides personalized support and solutions to benefits professionals. He ensures client expectations are met and seamlessly exceeded, proactively working to achieve ideal results to help clients reach their pharmacy benefit plan goals.

Bob graduated from Kent State University, earning a Bachelor of Science in hospitality and minors in business and management. After graduating, he lived overseas in New Zealand for eight months. Prior to joining Employers Health, Bob was an executive host for JACK Entertainment, focusing on client retention and business development. A Cleveland native, he still resides in the city. He's a music lover, Cleveland sports fanatic and enjoys spending time with family, friends and his 10-year-old German shepherd, Bear.
